MEMORANDUM FOR SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

SUBJECT: Accountability Actions Relating to Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA) – USS RONALD REAGAN STRIKE GROUP (2006-2007)

References: (a) SECNAV ltr of 28 Mar 14
(b) VCNO ltr 5800 Ser N09/ of 28 Mar 14
(c) DoDI 1320.04

References (a) and (b) designated me as the consolidated disposition authority (CDA) for the above-referenced subject matter. This memorandum summarizes the CDA actions taken to date.

In the cases of VADM Michael H. Miller, USN, RADM Terry B. Kraft, USN, and RDML David R. Pimpo, USN, I recommend that you issue Secretarial Letters of Censure and revoke end of tour awards for the assignments concerned. TABs A through C pertain. Further, I directed my staff to ensure that a summary of VADM Miller's and RDML Pimpo's lack of judgment in regards to their relationships with a prohibited source and foreign national be reported on the Joint Personnel Adjudication System (JPAS). I have also directed my staff to refer this matter to the Acquisition Integrity Office (AIO) for any action deemed appropriate.

In the cases of [REDACTED] (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) USN, and [REDACTED] (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) USN, I addressed their lapses in judgment via appropriate administrative measures within my authority as the CDA. There were also approximately 20 other officers (including one [REDACTED] (b)(6), (b)(7)(C)) from the subject strike group who may have attended GDMA-hosted dinners. I intend to handle those cases with similar appropriate administrative measures.

In accordance with reference (c), any substantiated adverse finding or conclusion from an officially documented investigation or inquiry, or any other credible information of an adverse nature, constitutes "adverse information." I have, therefore, reported all of the substantiated adverse findings concerning each of the aforementioned flag officers to the Naval Inspector General, who will maintain a record of these findings.

One of the issues raised by this matter involves the use of Bravo Zulu (BZ) messages and Letters of Appreciation concerning GDMA, and when the use of the same crosses the line between expressing a permissible "thank you" for meeting contractual requirements and expressing an impermissible endorsement of, or preference for, GDMA. Understanding that the evidence received thus far only captures a brief snapshot of time, mainly in 2006 and 2007, I am concerned that there may well have been a lack of understanding concerning the ethical rules in this area, especially among some of the Navy's more senior leaders in the Pacific Fleet area of responsibility. While systemic corrective training measures may have been implemented in the interim, I intend to discuss this issue with the Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

The evidence also suggests that there was not a uniform and well established process concerning how opinions are sought from an ethics counselor, how evidence of such opinions are maintained, and how market value determinations of gifts are made. I will engage further on this issue with the Deputy Judge Advocate General of the Navy.

Finally, I note, again during the stated time period of this review, attempts by Navy personnel to circumvent the Navy's oversight responsibilities over contractors. My CDA team will brief Supply Corps senior leaders on the investigation to determine any lessons learned.

1. As the consolidated disposition authority (CDA) for the Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA) matter per reference (a), I determined that a preponderance of the evidence substantiates that in 2006, while acting as Commander, Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (CSG-7), RADM Michael H. Miller, USN, exercised very poor judgment regarding his relationship with Mr. Leonard Francis, the President of GDMA, a defense contractor and, therefore, a prohibited source for gifts per references (b) and (c). Further, through his repeated and increasingly familiar contacts with Mr. Francis, RADM Miller failed to display the requisite leadership by personal example that is required by reference (d) of all commanding officers, and established, throughout the deployment of USS RONALD REAGAN (CVN-76), a weak ethical tone which permeated the senior leadership of the Strike Group.

2. More specifically, I determined that the evidence substantiates the following:

a. On 9 Feb 2006, while serving as Commander, Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (CCSG-7), RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a ship model from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

b. On 9 Feb 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Singapore from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

Subj: ADVERSE INFORMATION ICO RADM MICHAEL H. MILLER, USN

c. On 4 Jun 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

d. On or about 5 Jun 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller solicited the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Hong Kong from Mr. Francis;

e. On 11 Jun 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Hong Kong from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

f. While serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller improperly endorsed Mr. Francis and GDMA with Bravo Zulu (BZ) messages and Letters of Appreciation; and

g. While serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller violated the Standards of Ethical Conduct, which are applicable to all employees of the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government, due to the frequency in which he accepted numerous gifts from Mr. Francis.

3. The above findings constitute adverse information in accordance with reference (e).

4. My point of contact for this matter is (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) or (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) may be reached at (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) or (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) @navy.mil.

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

WASHINGTON, DC 20350-1000

JAN 23 2015

From: Secretary of the Navy
To: RDML David R. Pimpo, SC, USN
Subj: SECRETARIAL LETTER OF CENSURE

Ref: (a) 5 C.F.R. Part 2635
(b) U.S. Navy Regulations, 1990
(c) JAGMAN 0114a

1. In 2006 and 2007, while serving as the Supply Officer, USS RONALD REAGAN (CVN 76) which was deployed to the Seventh Fleet area of responsibility, you demonstrated very poor judgment and leadership regarding your relationship with Mr. Leonard Francis, the President of Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA), a defense contractor and, therefore, a prohibited source. During deployment, you engaged in repeated inappropriate contact with Mr. Francis. This repeated and increasingly personal contact evolved into a relationship where you were repeatedly paying Mr. Francis for personal expenses at a rate far below the market value of the items and services which were provided. As a prohibited source, Mr. Francis had a clear and obvious financial incentive to subsidize the purchase of these items in an effort to develop a stronger relationship with a senior officer.

2. You repeatedly and improperly accepted gifts from a prohibited source by failing to pay their market value or return them, as required per reference (a). You paid $1,000 total for at least three but possibly up to five ship models. The market value of each of these ship models was at least $870.00. You attended three GDMA-hosted dinner parties. The first dinner was held on 9 February 2006 at the Jaan Restaurant in Singapore. The second and third dinners were both in Hong Kong; one on 11 June 2006 at Petrus Restaurant and the other on 10 March 2007 at Spoon Restaurant. For the February 2006 and March 2007 dinners, you paid $50.00 for attending each of these two dinner parties. For the remaining dinner party, although it is unclear what, if anything, you paid for it, it is likely that you did not pay more than $50.00. You stated (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) that $50.00 was a reasonable amount to pay because you were not savvy enough to know the difference between a $50.00 dinner and a $500.00 dinner, or words to that effect. The market value of each lavish dinner party was considerably more than $50.00 per person. For example, the total cost of one of the dinners was approximately $23,061.50, which equates to $768.72 per attendee.

As a Supply Officer with 20 years of service at the time, you knew or should have known that $50.00 per person was not the market value of these extravagant dinner parties.

3. You also accepted sightseeing and shopping tour services from GDMA for (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) of select senior officers on or about 9 June 2006 while in Hong Kong. You also twice solicited and accepted the improper gift of lodging reservation services in Hong Kong from GDMA; once for yourself, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and select senior officers (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) in May 2006, and on a second occasion for yourself and select senior officers on or about 22 February 2007 through on or about 10 March 2007. These services fell outside the scope of GDMA's contract with the Navy and were provided at no charge to you. As Supply Officer, you knew or should have known the contractual obligations and limitations of GDMA vis-à-vis the Navy. Nevertheless, you used your relationship with Mr. Francis to secure tour services and hotel rooms for the benefit of yourself and senior Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN) leadership.

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

He stated that he did not opine that you could legally engage in the described conduct. Furthermore, the former RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) stated that since he was not a designated (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A), he knew that only the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) would have issued such legal opinions. Based on the materials in the record concerning you, there are no exceptions to the acceptance of these gifts which are applicable to you in accordance with reference (a).

5. Reference (a) makes clear that notwithstanding any exception that might have applied to you, gifts from the same or different sources on a basis so frequent that a reasonable person would be led to believe that you were using your public office for private gain shall not be accepted. Given the frequency of the gifts which you received from Mr. Francis, your actions would have led a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts to believe that you used your public office for private gain.

6. Furthermore, you permitted Mr. Francis to use your position as the RONALD REAGAN Supply Officer to promote the business interests of GDMA by coordinating with him the issuance of inappropriate Bravo Zulu messages on behalf of GDMA, and agreeing with Mr. Francis to conceal the true nature of a dinner party from the Hong Kong Ship Support Office, which Mr. Francis considered to be critical of his company. The timing of these official acts by you occurring after the acceptance of prohibited gifts, at least, created the appearance that Mr. Francis was influencing the performance of your official duties.

7. In matters of personal behavior, you were responsible to set the ethical and moral tone for your subordinates, per reference (b). Your improper acceptance of gifts as well as your inappropriately familiar and increasingly supportive relationship with Mr. Francis and GDMA were unsatisfactory. Your conduct constituted a significant deviation from the standards expected of all naval officers.

8. Your conduct during this period was contrary to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch and U.S. Navy Regulations, references (a) and (b); standards which you had a duty to know and obey.

9. You are, therefore, administratively censured for your leadership failure. A copy of this letter will be placed in your official service record in accordance with reference (c).

10. Within 15 days of receipt of this letter, you may forward a rebuttal, consistent with reference (c), for inclusion in your official record, if you so desire.

1. In 2006, while serving as Commander, Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN), which was embarked in USS RONALD REAGAN (CVN 76) and deployed to the Seventh Fleet area of responsibility, you demonstrated very poor judgment and leadership regarding your relationship with Mr. Leonard Francis, the President of Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA), a defense contractor and, therefore, a prohibited source. Prior to the deployment, you initiated e-mail contact with Mr. Francis, indicating that you looked forward to renewing your friendship. This contact began as a request for a shopping recommendation regarding the purchase of personal items. During deployment, you engaged in repeated inappropriate contact with Mr. Francis. This repeated and increasingly personal contact evolved into a relationship where you were repeatedly paying Mr. Francis for personal expenses at a rate far below the market value of the items and services which were provided. As a prohibited source, Mr. Francis had a clear and obvious financial incentive to subsidize the purchase of these items in an effort to develop a stronger relationship with a senior flag officer.

2. You repeatedly and improperly accepted gifts from a prohibited source by failing to pay their market value or return them, as required per reference (a). You received a ship model of RONALD REAGAN. The market value of the ship model was at least $870.00, for which you reimbursed Mr. Francis only $500.00. You attended three dinner parties. The first dinner was held on 9 February 2006 at the Jaan Restaurant in Singapore; the second dinner was held on 4 June 2006 at the Suisse Chalet Restaurant in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia; and the third was held in Hong Kong at Petrus Restaurant on 11 June 2006. You paid $50.00 for attending the GDMA-hosted dinner in Singapore. On 5 June 2006, you signed a personal check for $1,650.00, which you explained was to pay, on behalf of yourself and others, $50.00 per person for the other two GDMA-hosted dinner parties. According to your check registry, you also signed a check on the same day for $1,200.00 for a "CHAIR+DINNER+CIGARS," but you did not recall to which dinner this check referenced or how much of this amount was associated with compensation for a dinner. However, even viewing the facts in the most favorable light to you by assuming that the entire $1,200.00 was intended to pay for you and others who attended the GDMA-hosted dinner parties in Malaysia and Hong Kong, the amount was inadequate and still resulted in a gift from a prohibited source. The market value of each lavish dinner party was considerably more than $50.00 per person. For example, the total cost of one of the dinners was approximately $23,061.50, which equates to $768.72 per person. Further, you stated to federal investigators that paying $50.00 per person for each of the three dinner parties would have fully compensated Mr. Francis, or words to that effect. As a flag officer with over thirty years of naval service at the time, you knew or should have known that $50.00 per person was not the market value for these extravagant dinner parties.

4. Given the frequency of the gifts you received from Mr. Francis, especially as two of the dinners occurred on dates that were only a week apart, your actions would have led a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts to believe that you used your public office for private gain.

5. In addition to improperly accepting gifts from a prohibited source, you solicited a gift from a prohibited source, in violation of the ethics regulations, when you asked Mr. Francis to arrange a dinner party in Hong Kong for 11 June 2006.

6. You further exercised poor judgment by improperly expressing in your official capacity your opinion that GDMA was a superior contractor to its competitors, which is prohibited by references (a) and (b). This display of poor judgment was aggravated by the fact that you issued these endorsements within days after the extravagant GDMA-hosted dinners that you attended.

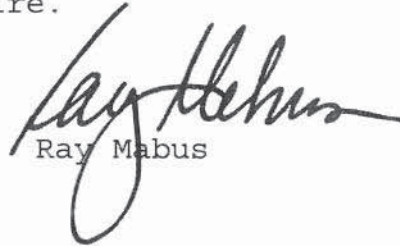

7. In matters of personal behavior, you were responsible to set the ethical and moral tone for your subordinates, per reference (c). Your improper acceptance of gifts as well as your inappropriately familiar and increasingly supportive relationship with Mr. Francis, a prohibited source, were unsatisfactory and cultivated an unacceptable sub-par ethical climate within your command. Your conduct constituted a significant deviation from the standards expected of all naval officers, particularly those entrusted with command.

8. Your conduct during this period was contrary to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, the Joint Ethics Regulation, and U.S. Navy Regulations, references (a), (b), and (c); standards which you had a duty to know and obey.

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) You claimed that both the Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN) and RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) (b)(7)(C) had to approve attendance at off-ship dinners and that you had received specific guidance from your RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) that you could attend all four dinners. You additionally claimed that the RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) also spoke to the (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) and that they determined that the cost of each of the four dinners should be around $70.00. (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

The COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) does not specifically remember discussing these matters at the time and that, if he did discuss them, based on the description of the events which were provided to the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) by the investigators, he does not believe that those seeking a legal opinion fully disclosed the relevant facts. (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) your former RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) stated that he did not opine that you could legally engage in the described conduct. Furthermore, your former (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) stated that since he was not a designated (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) he knew that only the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) would have issued such legal opinions. Based on the materials in the record concerning you, there are no exceptions to the acceptance of these gifts which are applicable to you in accordance with reference (a).

4. Reference (a) makes clear that notwithstanding any exception that might have applied to you, gifts from the same or different sources on a basis so frequent that a reasonable person would be led to believe that you were using your public office for private gain shall not be accepted. Given the frequency of the gifts which you received from Mr. Francis, especially as two of the dinners occurred on dates that were only a week apart, your actions would have led a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts to believe that you used your public office for private gain.

5. You further exercised poor judgment by issuing an official Bravo Zulu (BZ) message that described GDMA as the best in the world and unrivaled in the delivery of customer service, which is prohibited by references (a) and (b). The lack of judgment in issuing the BZ message was aggravated by the fact that you distributed the endorsement within days of attending one of the extravagant GDMA-hosted dinners.

6. In matters of personal behavior, you were responsible to set the ethical and moral tone for your subordinates, per reference (c). Your improper acceptance of gifts from a prohibited source set an unsatisfactory ethical tone. As such, your conduct constituted a significant deviation from the standards expected of all naval officers, particularly those entrusted with command.

7. Your conduct during this period was contrary to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, the Joint Ethics Regulation, and U.S. Navy Regulations, references (a), (b), and (c); standards which you had a duty to know and obey.

8. You are, therefore, administratively censured for your leadership failure. A copy of this letter will be placed in your official service record in accordance with reference (d).

9. Within 15 days of receipt of this letter, you may forward a rebuttal, consistent with reference (d), for inclusion in your official record, if you so desire.

1. As the consolidated disposition authority (CDA) for the Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA) matter per references (a) and (b), I reviewed evidence of potential misconduct against then-Captain Adrian Jansen, while he was serving as Naval Attaché to Indonesia between 2010 and 2013. Based on a preponderance of evidence, I substantiated that RDML Jansen wrongfully:

a. Violated the Joint Ethics Regulation as implemented by the Department of Defense, a lawful order, when he accepted gifts from Leonard Francis and GDMA, a prohibited source, on 7 December 2011, 20 October 2012 and 19 June 2013;

b. Was negligently derelict in the performance of his duties for failing to report Leonard Francis as a foreign contact to appropriate officials; and

c. Was willfully derelict in the performance of his duties when he failed to report gifts provided by Leonard Francis and GDMA, a foreign contact.

2. Between 2010 and 2013, RDML Jansen accepted gifts in the form of lavish dinners paid for by GDMA and Leonard Francis. The total value of the meals was in excess of $5000.00 and none of the gift exceptions in reference (c) applied. In addition, at a private "farewell luncheon" hosted by Leonard Francis, RDML Jansen was provided gifts in the form of expensive bottles of wine and none of the gift exceptions in reference (c) applied.

3. As a Naval Attaché assigned to the Defense Intelligence Agency, RDML Jansen had a duty to report to appropriate security officials his engagements with Leonard Francis and the offering and accepting of gifts by a foreign national. RDML Jansen did not report any of his interactions with Leonard Francis, or the offering and accepting of the gifts referenced above, at any time.

Subj: ADVERSE INFORMATION ICO RDML ADRIAN JANSEN, USN

4. RDML Jansen was in contact with, and socialized directly with, Mr. Francis on numerous occasions. Overall, RDML Jansen failed to live up the standards expected of an officer of his rank and experience during his interactions with Mr. Francis and GDMA.

5. The above findings constitute adverse information in accordance with reference (d). I addressed these issues with RDML Jansen at Admiral's Mast and imposed nonjudicial punishment in the form of a punitive letter of reprimand and forfeiture of three thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars per month for two months (total forfeitures of $7,500.00). My findings were in accordance with RDML Jansen's pleas of guilty to three specifications of orders violations implementing the Joint Ethics Regulation within the Department of Defense and one specification of willful dereliction of duty for failure to report the gifts. My finding related to the negligent dereliction of duty for failing to report Leonard Francis as a foreign contact was contrary to RDML Jansen's plea at Admiral's Mast.

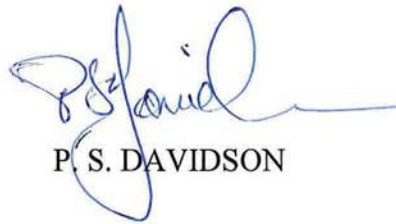

6. By copy of this letter, I am recommending that RDML Jansen's current command suspend his access to classified information in accordance with reference (g). In addition, I have referred evidence to the DoD Central Adjudication Facility for any action deemed appropriate related to RDML Jansen's security clearance.

7. In accordance with references (e) and (f), via separate correspondence, I am recommending that the Secretary of the Navy revoke RDML Jansen's end of tour award for his assignment as the Naval Attaché to Indonesia during which these offenses took place.

8. I considered all potential and appropriate remedies consistent with the evidence and findings of fact including restitution and reimbursement. The punishment imposed at Admiral's Mast appropriately addresses the benefits that RDML Jansen obtained as a result of his misconduct. My point of contact for this matter is (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) USN (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) may be reached at

(6) Military Awards Order Number 100-21 dtd 10 Apr 2013

1. Per reference (a), this Report of Misconduct in the case of RDML Adrian Jansen is forwarded for review and action. On 10 February 2017, nonjudicial punishment (NJP) was imposed on RDML Jansen for violation of Uniform Code of Military Justice Article 92, three specifications of a violation of a lawful order and two specifications of dereliction of duty. Enclosure (1) contains the report and disposition of offenses from the proceedings, the pre-mast procedural documents, including the agreement related to accepting NJP and waiving the statute of limitations and information considered by me at Admiral's Mast, including submissions by RDML Jansen. Enclosure (3) is a summary of the NJP proceedings. Enclosure (4) is the punitive letter of reprimand that was issued to RDML Jansen as a result of Admiral's Mast, along with RDML Jansen's acknowledgement of receipt of the punitive letter and his desire not to submit a statement. Enclosure (5) is RDML Jansen's Voluntary Retirement request of 13 Feb 2017. Enclosure (6) is RDML Jansen's end of tour award for the time period covered by the offenses adjudicated at Admiral's Mast.

2. Pursuant to a written agreement, RDML Jansen waived the statute of limitations applicable to NJP proceedings and accepted NJP. At Admiral's Mast, in accordance with the agreement, RDML Jansen pled guilty to the charge and four specifications of violations of Article 92 (three orders violations related to the Joint Ethics Regulations and one dereliction of duty). I found RDML Jansen guilty of the remaining specification of negligent dereliction of duty at mast, and found RDML Jansen guilty of all others in accordance with his pleas. I awarded him a punitive letter of reprimand and forfeiture of $3,750.00 pay per month for two months. By his actions, RDML Jansen has shown his character is not in keeping with the standards expected of a naval officer.

Subj: NONJUDICIAL PUNISHMENT REPORT ICO RDML ADRIAN JANSEN, USN,

3. Details of the hearing and the circumstances of the offenses are set forth in enclosure (3). A copy of the punitive letter of reprimand and RDML Jansen acknowledgement of receipt of his punitive letter of reprimand and intent to not make a statement in response is attached as enclosure (4).
4. Pursuant to his agreement regarding these proceedings, RDML Jansen did not appeal his nonjudicial punishment. Accordingly, nonjudicial punishment is now final and shall be reflected in his fitness report that covers the date it was imposed.
5. After fully reviewing the facts of this case, the following administrative actions are recommended:
- a. I recommend that RDML Jansen's End of Tour Award for the time period of the offenses, contained at enclosure (6), be revoked in accordance with reference (b).
 - b. I recommend that RDML Jansen's continued eligibility for a security clearance be adjudicated by the Department of Defense Central Adjudication Facility (DoD CAF) in light of the misconduct adjudicated at Admiral's Mast.
 - c. I do not recommend that RDML Jansen be required to show cause for retention as RDML Jansen has submitted a voluntary retirement request at enclosure (5) in accordance with his agreement related to these proceedings. I recommend that he be allowed to retire at the earliest opportunity and I recommend retirement in the grade of O-6.
6. By copy hereof, RDML Jansen is notified of his right, per reference (a), to submit his comments, within 10 days of receipt, concerning this report of nonjudicial punishment and letter of reprimand, which will be included as an adverse matter in his official record. His comments or declination to make a statement will be reflected in his endorsement to this letter.
